PathPartner Code of Conduct Policy

1. Policy brief & purpose

PathPartner Code of Conduct policy outlines Company's expectations regarding employees' behavior towards their colleagues, managers, customers and overall organization. The purpose of these rules are not to restrict the rights of anyone, but rather to help people work together harmoniously according to the standards established for efficient and courteous services for PathPartner's customers.

PathPartner promotes freedom of expression and open communication but expects its employees to foster a well-organized, respectful and collaborative environment. They should avoid offending, participating in serious disputes and disrupting our workplace.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all directors, permanent employees, consultants, contractors, trainees, interns and probationers of PathPartner.

Directors and employees, consultants, contractors, trainees, interns and probationers must read and become familiar with these policies and the Code of Conduct and are expected to comply fully – in letter and spirit – with the same in conduct of all their efforts on behalf of the Company.

3. Policy elements

PathPartner employees are bound to follow Employee Code of Conduct while performing their duties at PathPartner premises or On-site at Customer premises or working from home or at other off-site location. This Code is subject to continuous review with a purpose of keeping it updated, healthy and aligned with the Company's objectives. Any amendment/inclusion or waiver of any provision of this code shall be approved by the Company's Board of Directors or a Committee of Directors, constituted for the purpose and in applicable regulatory filings pursuant to the applicable laws and regulations together with the details about the nature of the amendment or waiver.

3.1. Components of PathPartner Code of Conduct Policy are outlined below:

3.1.1. Compliance with law

All employees must protect Company's legality. They should comply with all environmental, safety and fair dealing laws. PathPartner expects employees to be ethical and responsible when dealing with Company's finances, products, partnerships and public image.

3.1.2. Protection of Company Property

All employees should treat Company's property, whether material or intangible, with respect and care.

Employees:

- Shouldn't misuse Company equipment or use it frivolously.
- Should respect all kinds of incorporeal property. This includes trademarks, copyright and other property (information, reports etc.) Employees should use them only to complete their job duties.

Employees should protect Company facilities and other material property from damage and vandalism, whenever possible.

3.1.3. Professionalism

All employees must show integrity and professionalism in the workplace.

PathPartner Code of Conduct Policy

- Personal appearance

All employees must be clean and well-groomed. Grooming styles dictated by religion and ethnicity aren't restricted. All clothes must be work-appropriate and must project professionalism. Employees must avoid sweat pants, sweat shirts, and flip flops.

- Corruption

PathPartner discourages employees from accepting gifts from vendors, clients or customers.

- Job duties and authority

All employees should fulfill their job duties with integrity and respect their customers and the stakeholders. Managers mustn't abuse their authority. PathPartner expects them to delegate duties to their team members taking into account their competences and workload. Likewise, PathPartner expects team members to follow managers' instructions and complete their duties with skill and in a timely manner. Ignoring work duties or loafing during working hours and habitual negligence or neglect of work is unacceptable.

PathPartner encourages mentoring throughout the organization.

- Absenteeism and tardiness

Employees shall observe the working hours, working rules and policies of PathPartner or Customer while working on PathPartner premises or Customer premises or working from home or at other off-site location, as the case may be. PathPartner can make exceptions for occasions that prevent employees from following standard working hours or days. But, being habitually tardy or taking unexcused absences from work will be subject to disciplinary actions.

- Conflict of interest

PathPartner expects employees to avoid any personal, financial or other interests that might hinder their capability or willingness to perform their job duties.

- Communication of Separation

All employees must inform their decision of separation to their reporting or project manager at PathPartner and HR. Employees should not discuss their resignation or notice period with the Customers.

- Benefits

PathPartner expects employees to not abuse their employment benefits. This can refer to time off, insurance, facilities, subscriptions or other benefits Company offers.

- Policies

All employees should read and follow PathPartner policies. If they have any questions, they should ask their manager/s or Human Resources (HR) department.
